

Hello
World,

I am Daniel, Junior Frontend Developer

Sed imperdiet enim ligula, vitae viverra justo porta vel. Duis eget felis bibendum, pretium mi sed, placerat ante. Vivamus sit amet interdum elit.

I have highly developed analytical and negotiating skills.
New things and challenges awake in me a great motivation to act.
In my sales career, I am guided by the principles that build lasting relationships with the client. Such action always allows me to be successful in this field.

Privately, I am interested in:
Traveling - my greatest achievement so far has been a trip around the world.
Culinary - I love to cook, taste, try new things - my blog: <https://www.instagram.com/do.eat.now/>
Motorcycles - I drive the Bandit 650s.

Mountains are also my passion. I am conquering the Crown of the Polish Mountains.
By 10.2022 I will finish climbing the remaining 12 of the 28 KGP peaks.
